Course Description: This course covers the use of interactive television and other distance learning techniques. Students learn presentation techniques for instructors and learn to plan distance learning classes. Methods for converting conventional class materials into a format suited for distance learning are covered. This course also covers the use of Internet pages, e-mail, chat rooms, telecourses, audiotapes, and instructor-created videotapes in support of a distance learning program. In addition, students gain hands-on experience using interactive television equipment.
